Bernstorff Is Now Pilot of Wilson's Diplomacy SMITE MEXICO;

His Move Can Make or Break President-And He Plans to Steer Straight for Crisis to Estrange Britain.

By FRANK H. SIMONDS.

Washington, Jan. 13.-German diplomacy believes that it is about to repeat in Washington the successes it achieved both at Constantinople and at Sofia. It is the view of those who are close to Count von Bernstorff and it is equally the view of many who are close to American official life that German diplomacy is now on the point of embroiling the United FOREIGN POLICY States with Great Britain and Great Britain's allies.

When Count von Bernstorff has presented the Wilson administration with the victory which is incident to a German disavowal, in some satisfactory terms, of the Lusitania, and when German compliance with the rules of international law in the submarine matter is equally satisfactorily promised, it is expected on all sides that the administration will be committed to begin at once an attack upon the British blockade

Such a result will represent a final triumph for the patient sistence of the German Ambassador. His position in the months since the war began has been pretty generally misunderstood. He has been portrayed as the hitter enemy and as the kind friend of America, precisely last night at the Wilson policy in as the turn of affairs at the moment seemed to justify. The fact, of Mexico, particularly in view of the lat course, has been that at all times he has been the German Ambassador and that he has at all times been serving German ends.

Early in the war Count von Bernstorff conceived that it would be Austria in regard to submarine activ wiser to use than to antagonize the United States. At all times he has ties. used his influence against the von Tirpitz programme and the "terribleness" that murdered neutrals as well as belligerent non-combatants. fication for interfering in Mexico that This has been represented as due to a friendship for America. Had the submarine operation continued to give promising results, there is no question that Germany would have continued to give no hearing to Bernstorff.

The failure of the submarine war, however, gave to Bernstorff, and to those who held his view in Germany, the first chance to obtain a real trial republics to take from us the responsifor their own policy.
